	Assumption in Pelplin
	www.muzeum.diecezja.org/katedra/
	Upon visiting Pelplin you may embark on a journey following the Gray Monks, admire the traces of a historic culture, and spend a day in one of the most well-preserved Cistercian abbeys. The heart of the Pelplin monastery is the second-largest brick church in Poland, with 23 altars in its interior, including the highest wooden Baroque altar in Europe, Gothic and Baroque stalls, organs, and a pulpit, as well as other valuable furnishings. Here, the silence will make us feel the spirit of prayer and work that had for six centuries accompanied the everyday life of friars, following their maxim "Ora et Labora" (Prayer and Work).
